

Lifeloc Technologies Company Overview

Lifeloc

Professional Breath Alcohol Tester

Lifeloc Technologies is a U.S. manufacturer of breath alcohol testers (breathalyzers) for professional and personal use. We are a public company (OTC: LCTC) established in 1983 and headquartered in Wheat Ridge, Colorado. Lifeloc exists to make the world safer from the harmful effects of alcohol and drug abuse.

Lifeloc products are known for precision, ease-of-use and reliability. We support everything we sell with comprehensive training, certification and service programs. Lifeloc products are distributed in over 60 countries.

About Us

Lifeloc professional breath testing instruments are certified by the U.S. Department of Transportation, state forensic labs and approved for use internationally.

We operate under the ISO 9001: 2008 quality system. In 2012 Lifeloc received the Colorado Governor's Award for Excellence in Exporting and was recognized as a top 50 Colorado Company to Watch in 2011. We are an active member of the Drug and Alcohol Testing Industry Association (DATIA) and Substance Abuse Program Administrators Association (SAPAA).
