TECHNOLOGIES

Web-Based Breath Alcohol Technician Training

Lifeloc's online BAT training system is designed for:
- Provisional Instructors
- New BATs
- BAT refreshers & recertifications

Three Steps to Web-Based BAT Certification:
1. The procedural portion of the course: This can be completed by the BAT Candidate alone and at their own pace
2. Trainer performs a recap and Q&A session with the BAT Candidate
3. The BAT Candidate completes 7 mock tests, viewable real-time by trainer (online or in person)

Package Benefits:
- The system is consistently and quickly updated when testing protocol and regulations change
- Access to course content, resources, tools and materials for the life of the certification (5 years) - review at any time
- Access wherever there is internet connectivity
- Video examples of testing scenarios
- The procedural portion of training is completed by Candidates on their own, at their own pace
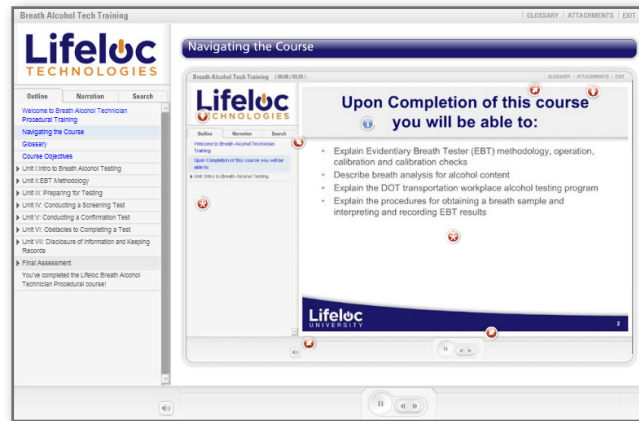

Provisional Instructors:
Save more than 50% in classroom time!
